

Heartland Coin Club Membership Benefits:

Monthly Bulletin: Members receive our monthly bulletin which includes updates on club activities and events.

Articles and Presentations: Both Heartland Coin Club members and the public can access a wealth of interesting and educational coin articles and presentations on our website.

Monthly Raffles: Attendees, including members and guests, have the opportunity to participate in our monthly raffles held at each meeting.

Monthly Coin Auction: We encourage active participation from our members as both sellers and buyers in our monthly coin auctions. Please note that these auctions are exclusive to Heartland Coin Club members. Non-members can join the auction by becoming a member before it begins.

Heartland Coin Club Shows: Our club hosts two of the second-largest coin shows in San Diego annually, with free admission for members.

Coin Symposiums: In collaboration with the San Diego Inter-Club Coin Council, we offer numismatic presentations that Heartland Coin Club members can attend. These events may sometimes take place out of town and members can travel to and from these symposiums in a luxury bus for a nominal fee.

With these membership benefits, the Heartland Coin Club offers a well-rounded experience for coin enthusiasts to learn, connect, and engage with others who share their passion.

Do you need further assistance? Feel free to visit our website, email us, or even better, join us at our upcoming meeting!

Frequently Asked Questions

Who are we?

“The objectives of this club shall be to encourage and spread knowledge of numismatics; to cultivate fraternal relations among collectors, students, dealers, and especially to encourage and assist amateur collectors.” (May 1962)

When and where do you meet?

Our meetings take place on the third Wednesday of every month, except for February and December, at the Bostonia Recreational Center in El Cajon. Meetings commence at 6:30 p.m.

What happens at the meetings?

Our meeting agenda typically includes:

- Business and Announcements
- Show and Tell, or Members Presentations
- Networking Break
- Coin Raffle (Members Only).
- Coin Auction (Members Only).
- Attendance prize drawing.

Can young ones attend the meetings?

Absolutely! We have a fantastic Young Numismatist Program (YNP) for coin enthusiasts between the ages of 5 and 18. This program offers numerous benefits and opportunities for young collectors.

What other activities do you have during the year?

Our meetings follow fun monthly themes—some are set each year, and others are picked at the previous meeting. For the latest meeting themes, visit our website at HeartlandCoinClub.com. The full bulletin — including minutes, reports, and meeting details — is shared with members after each meeting.

When are your Coin Shows?

We host two annual coin shows in May and October. These are currently held at the El Cajon Elks Lodge, 1400 E Washington Ave, El Cajon, CA.

Does the Heartland Coin Club engage in buying and selling coins?

The Club itself does not buy or sell coins. However, you are welcome to discuss this topic with club members during meetings. Please note that the club does not endorse or recommend any specific person.

How many other coin clubs are in the county of San Diego?

San Diego County boasts seven coin clubs. For meeting details, please visit our website.

What Makes a coin valuable?

A coin's value is influenced by factors like rarity, condition, and demand among collectors.

What makes coin collecting so appealing?

It is very personal! Collect what you like! Coin collecting has surged in popularity due to the abundance of coins connected to historical events. The thrill of discovering such pieces brings satisfaction and offers opportunities to build remarkable collections.

What are the top resources for coin Collectors?

The 'Red Book,' a go-to guide for U.S. coin collectors, is a valuable resource. Joining coin clubs is another excellent way to learn, as you'll interact with experienced collectors and newcomers alike.
